

TO ENTERTAIN . . . The Youngfolk, a talented group of young musicians, will entertain visitors at the Long Beach Home-O-Rama March 2 through 6. The group has delighted audiences throughout the nation with their rendition of folk songs and comedy routines. They will give two shows each night and afternoon matinees on the weekend.

'Youngfolk' to Appear at Home-O-Rama March 2-6

The Youngfolk, a group of talented, versatile musical artists will provide free entertainment daily at the 1966 Home-O-Rama, March 2 through 6 in the Long Beach Arena, according to George Colours, producer.

Colours said the group has delighted television and club audiences over the nation with their traditional renditions of folk songs and comedy routines.

The Youngfolk will present stage shows twice each night and will add matinees on Saturday and Sunday, March 5 and 6.

The home show, sponsored annually by the Long Beach Builders Exchange, will be open from 5 to 11 p.m. Wednesday through Friday, and from noon to 11 p.m. Saturday and Sunday.

Theme for this year's show will be "Showcase for Modern Living."

It will be emphasized in sectionalized exhibits which

Tartars Set Play Festival

Torrance High students will present a trio of original plays Saturday evening when the Tartars stage their 15th annual One-Act Play Festival.

Charles Slater, drama coach, has selected "The Job" by Janet Limbird, "Gettin' Even" by Kathy Nelson, and "Charlie" by Kathy McDonald for the festival.

"The Job," set in a small country store in Arkansas, is a strongly thematic play dealing with the hypocrisy of people who judge others by background and not on personal worth.

Miss Nolan's play, "Gettin' Even," is a story about two bumbling convicts who escape from prison and find themselves in a haunted house.

The final play, "Charlie," is set in Chicago. It tells the story of a middle-aged man's life and shows quickly how it can become meaningless.

The festival is open to the public. Tickets may be purchased at the door at $1 for adults and 50 cents for students.

Long Beach Girl Named Engineers To Reign at Home Show

Members of the Long Beach Builders Exchange have selected lovely Joyce Ann Wilton to homeowners and prospective as "Home-O-Rama Sweetheart" during the organization's annual home show March 2 through 6 in the Long Beach Arena.

Selected to serve with her as princesses are Sally Lundblade, 19, and Linell Harn, 18, both of Long Beach.

The girls were chosen from 15 contestants at a general membership dinner which has sponsored the Home-O-Rama since its inception in 1960.

They will preside at various events both before and during the home show. Each received a variety of gifts courtesy the Builder's Exchange and the Home-O-Rama production staff, headed by George Colours.

This year's home show will have as its theme, "Showcase for Modern Living."

The theme will be emphasized by hundreds of exhibits that will line the Arena, displaying products of interest to homeowners and prospective homeowners.
